Why choose Stone by Adamsez?

Shaped by Heritage - Refined for Today

With origins in the late 19th century, Adamsez has always been guided by thoughtful design and enduring expertise. Our Stone collection continues this legacy, pairing sculpted form with modern materials to create baths shaped for balance, comfort and lasting quality.

Lifetime Guarantee

Each stone bath is cast from premium composite stone and built for long-term durability. Our lifetime guarantee reflects the strength and reliability of every piece, giving you confidence for years to come.

Sculptural Designs

The Stone by Adamsez collection brings together a focused selection of distinctive forms - from soft curves to stronger architectural lines. Cast to precise proportions, every bath offers warm tactility, generous comfort and a timeless presence in contemporary spaces.

For acrylic baths by Adamsez, explore our dedicated range within the Aqualla brochure - created for practical, everyday luxury.

Customisation with AdColour

With AdColour, you can personalise your stone bath with a bespoke outer finish. Choose from a palette of subtle neutrals, deeper tones, or specific colour-matching to create a bath that fits seamlessly with your interior.

See page 46 for more information.

Pair with Aqualla Products

As part of the Aqualla family, our stone baths can be paired effortlessly with Aqualla taps, showers, mirrors and accessories to create a cohesive bathroom design. Explore the full range at aquallabrassware.com or via the Aqualla brochure.

Freestanding Stone Baths

With a heritage stretching back to the late 19th century, Adamsez has long championed the art of pairing purposeful design with enduring craftsmanship. Today, that legacy continues in a collection of sculpted stone baths shaped for balance, comfort and timeless modernity.

AdCast Stone by ADAMSEZ[®]

Our Stone Bath collection is crafted using AdCast, a premium composite stone that ensures a durable, flawless finish.

Made from the finest materials, these baths are designed to last a lifetime.

Hand-finished by our skilled artisans, each bath is available with bespoke outer finishes to suit any bathroom aesthetic.

Our Journey:

Over 140 years of Expertise

Since the 1880s, Adamsez has built a legacy of quality and innovation in the bathroom industry.

Our story reflects key milestones in our pursuit of excellence, evolving while staying true to our founding principles of exceptional design and precision engineering.

1880: Founding of Adamsez
M.J. Adams and S.H. Adams establish Adamsez in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, focusing on sanitary ceramic products.

1950-1960: International Recognition
Adamsez win gold medals at the tenth and sixteenth Triennale di Milano, highlighting their excellence in design and quality.

1980s-1990s: Product Diversification
Moves to Belfast and launches compact, corner, and spa baths with whirlpool systems with colour options.

2020s: Acquisition & Revitalisation
Aqualla, a Northern Ireland based brassware specialist, acquires Adamsez, breathing new life into the brand and announcing significant investment for further innovation and development.

Late 19th to Early 20th Century: Innovation & Expansion
Adamsez gains widespread recognition for producing high-quality, luxurious bathtubs.

1960-1970s: Technological Advancements
Adamsez innovates with new materials and designs in the bath market, staying ahead of trends and contributing to the growth of modern bathroom aesthetics.

2000s: Continued Excellence
Adamsez maintains its reputation for quality and innovation, adapting to modern design trends while preserving its heritage.

The introduction of freestanding baths and stone baths with bespoke colour painting is available.

2021-Present: Continued Growth
Adamsez continues to grow, introducing new collections that combine its rich heritage with modern design and innovative features.

Aqualla and Adamsez are part of the FM Mattsson Mora Group which brings together several of Europe's, leading bathroom brands.

Our Sustainability Journey

We are making small steps to meaningful change by actively seeking ways to reduce our carbon footprint.

A THOUGHTFUL APPROACH TO SUSTAINABILITY

As part of the FM Mattsson Group, Aqualla and Adamsez share a commitment to responsible manufacturing and long-term sustainability. While Aqualla delivers water-efficient brassware that helps reduce everyday consumption, our stone baths contribute through low-impact materials, reduced waste and cleaner production.

POWERED BY 100% GREEN ENERGY

Every Adamsez stone bath is produced using 100% renewable energy, significantly reducing its manufacturing footprint. This clean-energy process reflects our belief in combining modern precision with more conscious production methods.

DESIGNED TO LAST

Composite stone offers outstanding durability, helping reduce waste over the long term. With a repairable surface, recyclable materials and timeless design integrity, the Stone Collection is created to last - and to be chosen only once.

PART OF A GROUP-LEVEL SUSTAINABILITY JOURNEY

FM Mattsson Group holds a Bronze EcoVadis Sustainability Rating, placing us among the top 35% of companies assessed globally. This recognition reflects shared progress across environment, energy use, ethics and responsible procurement - progress carried across every brand, including Aqualla and Adamsez.

Let's work together to make things better.
